

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT – EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITY

INVITATION TO A (NON-BINDING) TENDER FOR THE PURCHASE OF SHARES

Not a full year has passed since our last invitation to a non-binding tender for the purchase of blocks of shares, yet here is a new opportunity to submit a competitive tender for the purchase. You are hereby invited to submit a (non-binding) tender for the purchase of securities.

Take this unique opportunity to reach a much wider base of potential sellers who are guaranteed a degree of fairness of the agreement that cannot be reached by any stock exchange.

- I. The subject of the tender shall be one or more types of securities listed in the following table (the table includes information about the quantity, the ISIN number, the issuer company and the code of the security on the tender).

II. The tender components.

The tender shall include the following elements:

(i) Subject of the tender: the issuer company, the ISIN number, and the quantity of the securities on the tender.

(ii) Offered price per individual security: Must be in specific amount in euros, rounded to two decimal places.

(iii) Payment method and deadline: No more than 15 days after the conclusion of the contract.

(iv) Best price guarantee: The tenderer shall be willing to give a 12-month best price guarantee from the conclusion of the contract.

The tender shall be unconditional and only for the purchase of the entire tendered quantity of the security of an individual issuer. The tender may be binding or non-binding. If the tender is binding it shall include its period of validity which shall be no less than 45 days following the submission of the tender.

III. Other provisions and stipulations.

If a tender for the purchase of a security is submitted by a company issuing this security (or a subsidiary or a company in which the issuer has a controlling share) it shall meet all the legal prerequisites for the validity of the legal transaction of acquiring own shares in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act (ZGD-1).

The tenders may be submitted by Slovene and foreign legal entities and natural persons. Legal entities headquartered outside of the Republic of Slovenia shall attach an extract from the court (or other appropriate) register which shall not be older than 30 days following the submission date of the tender.

In case multiple tenders meet the terms of this invitation, the seller may decide to conduct further negotiations with the tenderers and/or an auction. After the negotiations and/or auction are concluded, the seller intends to conclude a contract for the sale and purchase of a security with the tenderer offering the highest price in negotiations/auction for the entire quantity of a security of an individual issuer while meeting all the other terms of the invitation.

Based on this invitation, the seller is not bound to conduct negotiations or an auction nor to conclude a contract for the sale and purchase of a security with the best or any other tenderer.

The tender shall be submitted to VZMD – manager of the civil society "Share SUPPORT", Hrenova 13, SI-1000 Ljubljana, Slovenia in a closed envelope annotated with "Tender for the purchase of shares – DO NOT OPEN" by Friday, 12 August 2022 at the latest. The opening of tenders will not be public.

For further information regarding the sale, the interested tenderers should contact the VZMD Secretary general, Mr. Matevž Tratar, on workdays between 11.00 and 14.00 CET, by telephone at +386 51 770 771 or by e-mail at opora@vzmd.si.
